Social Analysis - 2026

Indian Social Institute, Bengaluru is organising Social Analysis Course cum workshop based on the Analysis and Action pedagogy to foster a scientific and critical understanding of the current social, economic, political and religious situations in our country. The program is intended for Jesuits, religious members and lay collaborators. It will examine key themes such as labour and economic inequality, caste and Dalit realities, Adivasi struggle and ecological justice, gender and patriarchy, religious fundamentalism and constitutional values. Participants will be introduced to practical tools of social analysis to critically interpret contemporary developments and power structures. The workshop will integrate faith and justice, enabling deeper discernment among the socially conscious community. Through dialogue, reflection, and collective learning, participants will strengthen their commitment to social transformation and democratic values.
